Brady Association planning dinner

By Staff Reports
7/18/2001

The Brady Heights Neighborhood Association is hosting a spaghetti dinner fund-raiser to benefit the Tulsa Project Impact Foundation from 5-9 p.m. Saturday.

It will be at Centenary United Methodist Church, 631 North Denver Ave., across from the historic Brady Mansion.

Tickets will cost $5 a person or $10 per family. This is Brady Heights' way of giving back to the partners who have helped revitalize the neighborhood, such as Tulsa Project Impact, the Home Builders Association of Greater Tulsa and others.

Because each of these entities has an involvement with Project Impact, it's foundation was considered to be a logical recipient of the funds, organizers said.

City of Tulsa Project Impact is co-sponsoring the event.

The Oklahoma Ready Mixed Concrete Association is donating a 27-inch television as a door prize.

For more information, call Charles Ruble at 583-7315 or Tulsa Project Impact at 596-9626.

Shelton appearing at Christian churches

Internationally recognized Christian dramatist David Shelton will be performing in the Tulsa area July 29-Aug.5.

Shelton is a singer, actor, storyteller and mime. He's traveled nearly a half-million miles on his mission and uses each dramatic tool to convey the gospel.

He has directed mime troupes in Athens and Corinth and

Meals On Wheels plans annual benefit

Tulsa singer Debbie Campbell will provide musical entertainment at the Meals on Wheels Sixth Annual Dance & Auction at 4 p.m. July 29th.

This year's theme takes on a light-hearted and casual flavor, and is called `Picnic in the Park,` even though it will take place in the cool air-conditioned ballroom of the Moose Lodge, Seventh Street and Garnett Road.

All proceeds will help homebound elderly and disabled persons in the Tulsa metropolitan area.

Numerous door prizes will be given away, and a silent auction featuring all kinds of new merchandise, craft items, gift certificates and services will be available to the highest bidders.

A square dance demonstration, lessons, and a contest will fill the evening as well.

Participants can also savor a variety of refreshments.

Tickets are $20 per person or $15 for Meals on Wheels volunteers and are available by sending a check to Meals on Wheels at 12620 E. 31st Street.

For more information, or to charge tickets, call 627-4103.
